Proxy Instructions and Motions Being Presented

What is a Proxy?

Definition of Proxy: the authority to represent someone else, especially in voting.

Definition of Proxy Vote: A proxy vote is a ballot cast by one person on behalf of a member/shareholder of a membership organization/corporation who would rather cast a proxy vote than attend a member/shareholder meeting.

Why Assign a Proxy?

Assigning your proxy to a colleague ensures your voice and vote is represented at the Annual Meeting of Members.

How to Assign a Proxy?

- In advance of assigning a proxy, you should always understand the items being presented and discussed and have formed an opinion on how you wish to vote on the specific items. The agenda package and reports being presented for approval can be found on the OCFP website.
- Choosing your proxy holder is important. In advance of assigning your proxy to anyone, you should share your wishes; therefore the proxy holder can act accordingly on your behalf. Note that your proxy holder can only vote on your behalf as instructed and questions that arise during the meeting that may have influenced your vote will not be considered. Your proxy is obligated to vote as you directed.
- Complete the Proxy form above.
